PERFECT PLAY

Race 5: #1 Memorable Angel

Kathleen O'Connell trainee took a huge step forward in career start number 2, just tiring late. Draws the rail and will use her early speed to her advantage. Projects to be the lone speed under Gallardo.

PRICE PLAY

Race 8: #8 April Fifteenth

Chris Block filly found trouble in her return off a 5 month breather, and only beat two home. She's always fun in N1X company since breaking her maiden, and this looks like the softest field she's met in some time. While the Delacour trainee looks like a formidable opponent, she'll have to answer the turf question. Exacta box with the two.
