PERFECT PLAY

Race 1: #6 Chaos Rising

Black Onyx filly ran a sneaky good race on debut, coming back for second after seemingly tiring in turn. Not sure if turf was her game, and the surface change will help. Should handle this field with any improvement.

PRICE PLAY

Race 5: #5 General Paddy

While this gelding likely won't make the lead, he will be get first run if and when Great Harbour Cay backs up. He's been popular at the claiming window, but has been rapidly improving. Three straight wins is not out of the question.
